

Storytime on the Farm

SUBJECT	TEACHER	GRADE	TIME
Plant Growth	Holly Wright	Birth – 3rd Grade	9am – 10am
Entomology	Sharon Dickinson
Geometry	Haylee Willis
Counting
Agriculture

OVERVIEW

Bring your child out to the farm to sing songs, read stories, participate in hands-on learning activities, and play! High quality learning followed by high intensity play!

Cost: $5/child (Season Passholders are FREE!)

DATE	STORY	ACTIVITY
MARCH 17	The Very Hungry Caterpillar by Eric Carle <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Entomology, Shapes, counting, fine motor skills, following directions. 	Students will count to construct a caterpillar using tissue paper circles.
MARCH 24	Are you an Ant? By Judy Allen <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Entomology, Nutrition, healthy lifestyles, fine motor skills, following directions. 	Students will use healthy foods to create an ant themed snack.
MARCH 31	Anthill by Fox Chapel Publishing <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Entomology, life cycles, listening skills, non-fiction text skills 	Students will build their very own anthill using information from the book.
APRIL 7	Plant and Grow by Cottage Door Press <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Plant life cycles, agriculture, following directions, fine motor skills. 	Students will create their own greenhouse to observe the growth of plants.
APRIL 14	Edible Colors: See, Learn, Eat by Jennifer Vogel Bass <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Agriculture, nutrition, colors, sorting skills 	Students will sort pictures of fruits and veggies into color categories using a Garden Color Sort printable activity.

DATESTORY*ACTIVITY

DATE	STORY	ACTIVITY
APRIL 21	Are you a Ladybug? by Judy Allen <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Entomology, counting, following directions, fine motor skills.	Students will fingerpaint the dots on a ladybug using number identification and counting skills.
APRIL 28	The Grouchy Ladybug by Eric Carle <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Entomology, social skills, shapes, listening skills.	Students will construct a ladybug using paper shapes.
MAY 5	The Very Hungry Caterpillar by Eric Carle <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Entomology, butterfly life cycles, following directions.	Students will paint a butterfly using their feet!